

On Saturday, April 13, 2013, we celebrate the well-deserved retirement of our friend and former Business Manager, George W. Reilly with members of the labor, political and business communities in an effort to raise much needed funds for the members who were devastated in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy.

Beginning early in his career as an Instructor and ultimately becoming the Business Manager of the largest plumber's union in the United States and Canada, George has dedicated most of his working life to our members and the unionized construction industry. Brother Reilly solidified the standing of Plumbers Local 1 at every level in both the business and political arenas. Whether on the jobsite or in the boardroom, he has led his officers and our members with honesty, integrity and an unparalleled work ethic; essentially raising the bar and setting the standard for future generations.

Just as George gave of himself to our organization his entire career, we think it is fitting to donate a portion of the journal proceeds in George's honor to the Local 1 "Member's Emergency Relief Fund" to assist our fellow members whose lives were turned upside down after Hurricane Sandy as they continue to rebuild their lives.
